On March 3, at the Basilica, a massed choir and the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra Sinfonia, will perform classical music revived from reconstructed original manuscripts found in the churches of Nain, Hopedale and Makkovik. The music includes works like Mozart's Ave Verum Corpus and movements from Handel's Messiah. You will hear some familiar tunes by composers you know well but, with text transcribed in the Inuktitut language, they take on a wonderful perspective that is treasured in the Inuit communities of Labrador. This concert will be even more meaningful for you as a parishioner as the show includes classical works for Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter Sunday - all repertoire that the church choirs in Labrador have sung for hundreds of years! Tickets are at the Arts & Culture Centre St. John's Box Office. $35 adult / $30 (student & senior 60+) HST & box office surcharge are included in the price. Saturday, March 3, 2017 8:00pm Basilica of St. John the Baptist

Panels on the Canadian Jewish Experience on display at City Hall The panels tell a Canadian story – a story of immigrants settling here, overcoming barriers, becoming part of, and contributing to a society that is inclusive, tolerant, and diverse. This is not only a Jewish story, but also the story of many groups that make Canada, and Newfoundland and Labrador in particular, their home. The panels will be on display at City Hall until Tuesday, February 13th, when they move to Arts and Culture Centre. They will be at the Arts and Culture Centre from February 13-27th.
